White Rose Shopping Centre An Autism Friendly Guide

Support

Hidden Disabilities Sunflower Lanyard

We proudly offer free Sunflower Lanyards as a discreet way to show that you may need a little more time or additional support in the centre. You can find these at our Guest Services Centre.

Sensory Toys

We have some new sensory toys for those who have forgotten their own fidget toys or needing some time out.

These can be picked up at our Guest Services Centre.

Who better to ask how to make a place more autism friendly, than a group of friendly people with autism?

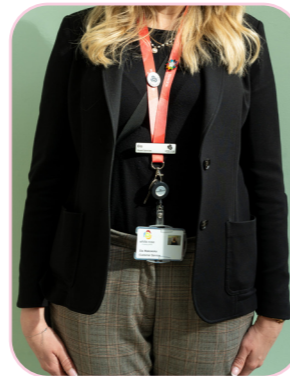

White Rose Shopping Centre have worked with Specialist Autism Services for their experience, research and vision to create this guide, designed for adults, youngsters, parents, and carers, about how to make your shopping centre visit a positive and rewarding experience.

To find out more about Specialist Autism Services, call them on 0113 277 5656, email them on info.leeds@specialistautismservices.org, or visit their website at www.specialistautismservices.org

Friendly Faces

The White Rose team can provide you with help during your centre visit.

The White Rose team wear the following uniforms:

Guest Services Team

Security Team

Cleaning Team

Some of the White Rose team do not wear uniform but wear a White Rose lanyard around their neck and a White Rose badge with their name on:

White Rose Lanyard

White Rose Name Badge

Quieter Places

White Rose has a Quiet Room that you can use at any time during your visit. The Quiet Room can be found up the escalators near New Look, at the end of the corridor near the toilets.

The White Rose Management Suite can provide you with a Safe Place if you need help.

Some of our shops have autism friendly shopping hours.

Cineworld at White Rose shows autism friendly screenings at 11am on the first Sunday of each month where the:

- Lighting is kept on during the screening
- Volume levels are reduced
- There are no advertisements or trailers
- Seating is not allocated
- Customers can take in their own food
