Our connection to Glasgow extends beyond Buchanan Galleries itself, which opened in 1999. Over many years, we've invested across the top of Buchanan Street, helping shape one of the UK's most important retail destinations and supporting the continued evolution of Glasgow city centre. In 2013, we developed Buchanan Gardens as part of our long-term commitment to the city.

Buchanan Galleries is a cornerstone of Glasgow's retail scene and has been for over 25 years. Today, it offers more than 80 leading national and international brands and attracts visitors from all across the UK.

Through our Landsec Futures social mobility programme and our partnerships with Ahead Partnership and Glasgow Chamber of Commerce, we're supporting young people to build skills, confidence and access pathways into employment.

Programmes such as Made in Glasgow introduce young people to the range of careers available across the sector, helping them develop both practical skills and longer-term aspirations. We also work closely with Glasgow Children's Hospital Charity, raising awareness for the charity as well as funds.

Alongside this, we're improving environmental performance across the centre, delivering a 26% reduction in energy intensity since 2019 through targeted energy efficiency measures and ongoing collaboration with local partners.

SINCE 2019, BUCHANAN GALLERIES HAS GENERATED OVER £1 MILLION IN SOCIAL VALUE AND SUPPORTED 616 PEOPLE THROUGH EMPLOYABILITY PROGRAMMES.
